

FROM MY THIRD FLOOR WINDOW

From My Third Floor Window follows E.A. Kahane, a renowned New York photographer as she captures the joy and celebrations of the famous Thanksgiving Parade. Kahane's love for the parade is deeply intertwined with her love for the city and her very New York love story with her husband. Through her photographs, we trace the history of parades, turkeys, balloons, people, fashion and the unbridled joy of New York City. This is her love letter to the city, its people, art and her family.
